GENEALOGY

OF THE

GALE FAMILY.

BY HON. GEORGE GALE OF GALESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

The name of RICHARD GALE, ancestor of the family, here given first appears upon the records of Watertown, Mass., in 1640,* as the purchaser of six acres of land, being part of a lot of nine acres in the town plot, of Richard Browne, the original proprietor. On the 2d of December he purchased 250 acres of Richard Dummer, being the north-eastern half of the "old town farm" in Watertown, which has continued as the family homestead to the present day. His wife was named Mary. His will, dated Feb. 25, 1678-9, was proved April 1, 1679.

It appears by the testimony in a suit in 1679, that John Gale, son of Richard, was in 1677, "a goodwiller" to the daughter of Henry Spring, senior, who, with his wife Mehitable, testified that "Goodman Richard Gale came to our house to ask our goodwill to make a match between our daughter Elizabeth, and his son John H. He promised to give his son John half of his farm," &c.†

1. RICHARD<sup>1</sup> GALE had the following children: (2) Sarah<sup>2</sup> b. Sept. 8, 1641; m. Apl. 3, 1663, Joseph Garfield, jr., (b. Sept. 11, 1637, adm. freeman, Apl. 18, 1690, d. 3. ABRAHAM<sup>2</sup> GALE was adm. freeman Oct. 11, 1682; was selectman of Watertown, 1706 and died Sept. 15, 1718, aged 75. His

* It is possible that he may have been the Richard Gale, aged 16, named in the list, printed in the Register, xiv, 351, of passengers from London to Barbadoes and St. Christophers, whose conformity was certified to by the minister of St. Katharines, near the Tower of London. Some of the emigrants to those islands we know came afterwards to New England. He may have married his wife there.

† Bond's Watertown, p. 771.

‡ Mr. Horatio G. Somerby, who has made some research in England relative to this family, states that he has found "sufficient to justify the belief" that this Nathan Fiske was the eighth in descent from Simon Fiske, lord of the manor of Stradhaugh, in Saxfield, Suffolk, in the time of Henry VI. See Bond's Watertown, p. 758. A very good genealogy of the Fiskes will be found in Bond, pgs. 208-19, and 758-62.

§ Abigail Gale, who died Sept. 5, 1718, aged 76, was probably either a daughter, or a second wife and widow of Richard. If a daughter, she is not mentioned in her father's will.
